

Year One Semester One

Professional English I / CPE 1101

Language Structure

- Basic English sentence structures
 - SV, SVO, SVC, SVA, SVOO, SVOC, SVOA
- Uses, formation and types of Nouns and Pronouns (Singular / Plural)
- “Be” as full verb (am / is / are / was / were)
 - It + be
 - There + be
- “Have” as full verb (have / has / had / having)
- Prepositions (uses and omission)
- Determiners – Articles
- Forms and uses of tenses (the simple present, simple past, simple future, and their passive forms)

Speaking

- Use social English confidently
- Introduce self and others
- Communicate information; produce meaningful statements on personal / familiar topics
- Speak and discuss on general topics like family, friends, hobbies, interests, etc.
- Engage in group discussions, conversations, and dialogues
- Greeting and leave taking and responses

- Formal greeting
 - Informal greeting
 - Different ways of greeting
 - Formal leave taking
 - Informal leave taking
 - Different ways of saying “goodbye” in different situations
- Consonant and Vowel sounds

Listening

- Listen to general conversations, dialogues, speeches, etc. and identify the topic / subject matter
- Comprehend simple instructions / statements / questions
- Listen to and respond to songs appropriately

Writing

- Write short descriptions on personal / familiar topics using simple sentences
- Write short compositions
- Improve Spelling
- Use basic Capitalization and Punctuation appropriately

Reading

- Identify and understand the general meaning of simple short texts
- Read common / general texts for comprehension

- Read and understand the implied meaning
- Read with humour

Integrated Skills

- Listening, taking down notes, discussion and reading
- Read, think and discuss

Evaluation

Continuous Assessments 40%

(Four Continuous Assessments will be held related to listening, speaking, reading, writing and grammar)

End Semester Examination 60% (This is a three-hour written examination)