

Year One Semester Two

Professional English II / CPE 1201

Language Structure

- Forms and Uses of Tenses (the present continuous, past continuous, future continuous and their passive forms)
- Conjunctions
- Complex sentences – with special reference to the relative clauses, relative pronoun and their uses.
- Subject-verb agreement in simple and complex sentences
- Determiners – some, any, many, a lot

Speaking

- Use marks of courtesy in agreeing, disagreeing, getting permission, giving permission, thanking, apologizing, appreciating
- Ways of saying 'yes' or 'No'
- Use questions appropriately to ask for information
- Provide appropriate responses to fairly complex questions with a reasonable degree of accuracy
- Express facts and opinion on familiar topics
- Make and respond to suggestions
- Role plays
- Talking about one's family

Listening

- Listen to variety of texts (dialogues, conversations, etc)
- Comprehend fairly complex questions
- Understand internal cohesion
- Understand simple explanations and descriptions in short texts
- Identify and understand key ideas in a longer text
- Listen and take down notes
- Listen for comprehension

Writing

- Write down dictated notes
- Write short compositions on general topics with a fair degree of accuracy
- Write conversations and dialogues
- Take and convey messages
- Write Informal letters
- Do Paragraph writing

Vocabulary

- Use contextual, structural, and morphological clues to deduce meanings of unfamiliar words or phrases

Reading

- Read variety of texts and respond appropriately
- Use Skimming and scanning techniques

- Identify and understand main ideas in more complex texts
- Infer implicit information in simple texts
- Read and take down notes

Integrated Skills

- Text reconstruction (Listening, Writing, Speaking, Reading)

Evaluation

Continuous Assessments      40%

(Four Continuous Assessments will be held related to listening, speaking, reading, writing and structure)

End Semester Examination    60% (This is a three-hour written examination)