

Sri Lanka Science & Technology Institute Network (SLSTINET)

SLSTINET was established with the object of enhance scientific and technological knowledge of library, related professionals, researchers, academics and scientist. SLSTINET provides their tremendous services among introducing of library software, support to data entering, hosting of library databases training programs and arranging of seminars. SLISTINET currently provides their dedicated services to 119 libraries. In order to gather services of research, science, technology and non technical institutes became a member of the SLSTINET

SLSTINET members capable of get assistance through introducing of library software, preparing of computerized data, creating of digital and related trainings, workshops and seminars by NSLRC.

National Science Library & Resource Centre (NSLRC)

As the National Focal Point for the dissemination of Science & Technology (S&T) Information in the country, the National Science Library and Resource Center (NSLRC) of the NSF provides an efficient information dissemination service to the scientific community using information communication technologies through strengthening of linkages and networks, by carrying out necessary programmes to foster the interchange of scientific information among scientists in Sri Lanka and foreign countries, by serving as the National repository of Science & Technology Literature and by facilitating an efficient Science and Technology information services through training of library professionals and provision of technical assistance.

The efficiency of the information service is enhanced through a network (Sri Lanka Science & Technology Information Network) operated among more than hundred (130) S&T libraries in the country.

Highlights of the SLSTINET Conference held on 09th August 2019

SLSTINET Conference was held on 9th August 2019. The topic of the conference was “The evolving roles of librarians as information professionals in the Digital Era” at Sri Lanka Foundation, Colombo 07.

Sri Lanka Scientific and Technical Information Network (SLSTINET) is a primary network of Scientific and Technical libraries which have a common interest in the field of Science, Technology and Innovation. It consists of 125 member libraries representing Universities, Research Institutions, Research finding bodies, Government Departments and Statutory Bodies, Banks and other Special Libraries in Sri Lanka. The core objectives of the SLSTINET is to share library resources among the network, provide library services to the scientific community, provide technical training and knowhow on Library and Information Sciences, provide digital library services and facilitating to host Sri Lanka Scientific Journals in the open access platform to promote globally.

This time 180 participants attended to the SLSTINET conference including 5 foreign resource persons, 3 local resource persons, 1 publisher, 2 service providers, 129 participants from 89 SLSTINET member institutions, Invitees, and NSF staff.

The Library at Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka obtained the institutional membership certificate by the SLSTINET under National Science Foundation of Sri Lanka is a great achievement