

JOURNAL OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES (JAS-SL)
POST OF EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Applications are internally entertained from the academic staff members of the Faculty of Agricultural Sciences who are holding a position of Professor or above for the post of Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Agricultural Sciences. This appointment is for a term of 3 years.

Roles and responsibilities

Following are the roles and responsibilities of the Editor-in-Chief of JAS-SL.

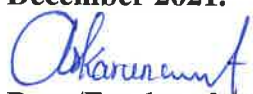

1. The Editor-in-Chief provides leadership and management to the Editorial Office and all its operations.
2. Determines the scope and direction of the journal.
3. Recommends members for the Editorial Board.
4. Provides timely feedback and to launch the journal with editorial team's assistance.
5. Supervises and monitors the performance of the journal and to improve its scientific content.
6. Pre-checks and decides on manuscripts to ensure quality of publications.
7. Decides development strategy of the journal each year.
8. Be actively involved in promoting the journal's development and public image.
9. Takes appropriate action to attract quality articles for publication.
10. Builds-up a panel of reviewers who can provide efficient for the journal.
11. Not allowed to resign without prior notice for minimum 4 months for the smooth continuation of activities.
12. Maintain quality and professional standards of publications
13. Review for acceptance of potential manuscripts
14. Provide final approval prior to online publication
15. Promotion of JAS and subscription
16. Work closely with the technical editors to oversee the production of Journal
17. Conduct the editorial board meetings

Qualifications

The Editor-in-Chief should possess following qualifications.

1. Holding a position of professor or above in the Faculty of Agricultural Sciences, SUSL.
2. Has research interests in common with the Mission and Scope of the journal
3. Has experience on editorial activities in journals/books/book chapters/conferences etc. Prior experience at the Editorial Office of JAS-SL would be an added advantage.
4. Has a good track record of publication of research in scholarly journals, conference and symposia.
5. Has substantial experience in reviewing manuscripts.
6. Has a willingness to drive journal activities.

Dully filled applications should be forwarded to dean@agri.sab.ac.lk on or before 31st December 2021.

Dean/Faculty of Agricultural Sciences
2021.12.20

Specimen Application for the Post of Editor-in-Chief Journal of Agricultural Sciences – Sri Lanka (JAS-SL)

1. Name with title:
2. Current position:
3. Total period of service in the faculty:
4. Period of service in the current position:
5. Period and nature of experience with JAS-SL:
6. Period and nature of experience with other journals:
7. Other relevant experience:
8. Research interests:
9. Details of services rendered to JAS-SL and other journals as a reviewer of manuscripts:
.....
10. Google scholar number of citation.....
11. Google scholar h-index.....

(Please attach your updated academic curriculum vitae)