GUIDELINES FOR FORMATTING AND SUBMISSION OF THE EXTENDED ABSTRACT

* The authors assume the responsibility for the accuracy and originality of the content and language in their respective abstracts, and neither the organizers of ICSSL nor the Editorial Board of ICSSL will bear any responsibility in this regard.

SUBMISSION OF THE EXTENDED ABSTRACT

Papers are accepted only in the English Language.

All submissions should be made electronically as a Microsoft Word document using the Conference Management System via <https://cmt3.research.microsoft.com/ICSSL2024>

Papers based on previously published work or currently submitted for any other publication will not be accepted.

Extended Abstracts relevant to the theme of the conference and the conference tracks will be considered for this symposium. The relevant focus track should be indicated on the title page.

Conference tracks:

- Track 01 - Economics and Management for Development
- Track 02 - Statistics and Information Technology
- Track 03 - Geography and Geospatial Analysis
- Track 04 - Society, Politics and Media Studies
- Track 05 - Language, Linguistics, Literature, and Culture
- Track 06 - English Language Teaching and Innovative Education Practices

Extended Abstracts submitted will be subject to a rigorous and independent double-blind expert review process administered by the Conference Editorial Board, and the authors will be notified of the acceptance or lack thereof on 3rd August 2026, via email. The Editorial Board's decision regarding the publication of an Extended Abstract will be final.

EXTENDED ABSTRACT SUBMISSION LAYOUT

The word count of the Extended Abstract should be between 1000 and 1200 words (including the Title page and one page for references). Please state a maximum of five (05) key references only.

The Extended Abstract should be organized as follows:

- I. Title Page
- II. Abstract and Keywords
- III. Introduction
- IV. Materials and Methods
- V. Results and Discussion
- VI. Conclusions and Recommendations
- VII. References

GUIDELINES FOR FORMATTING

Title Page

A separate title page should be provided allowing for blind review. All identifying information should be featured only on the title page. State the appropriate conference track number and title on the title page itself. Ensure that no information identifying the authors, their institutions, or the institutions cited in the original research are presented in the abstract, text, tables, or figures.

List names and affiliations of each author. Include full mailing addresses, phone numbers, and Email contact information of every author. Clearly identify the corresponding, or lead, author. This person will be responsible for ushering the manuscript through the review and publication process. The lead author is responsible for keeping contact information updated.

Title of the paper: 14 point bold face, upper case, centered

- The title should reflect the area of study.
- If scientific names are included, they should be written in italics (lower case), and common or vernacular names should be included within parentheses.

Names of the author (s): 11 point, centered.

- The initials should be followed by the surname (e.g., A.B. Johndoe).
- The corresponding author should be indicated with an asterisk (*) at the end of the name.
- The presenting author's name should be underlined.
- The list of authors should include all those who have scientifically contributed to the work and performed a significant part of the work that is presented.

Author affiliations: 10 point, italics, centered

- If the authors are from several institutes/departments, they should be numbered using a superscript at the end of the name of each author, and the numbers should correspond to the institutional address of the respective authors.

Corresponding Email: 10 point, italics, centered

- Corresponding author's email address should be specified, prefixed by an asterisk (*) (e.g., *corresponding author (email: abjohndoe@sample.com))

Conference Track: 11 point, regular, centered

- Appropriate conference track must be mentioned.

Abstract

An Abstract not exceeding 150 words (excluding 05 keywords) should be included at the onset of the paper. It should review the objectives, significance, results, and main conclusions of the paper. References should not be cited in the Abstract.

Keywords

Authors should submit a list of five (05) unique and informative keywords relating to the manuscript. Undefined abbreviations or acronyms should be avoided in the keywords. The Editorial Board reserves the right to replace keywords if necessary.

Text

- Submit all manuscript files as Word .doc or .docx files
- Page size must be B5
- Manuscripts must be typed in Times New Roman font. Please use standard British spelling instead of American spelling
- Use 12 pt. font size for the entire document, including tables, figures, headings, captions, and table notes (page footnotes, generated in Word, will be smaller).
- The word count of the Extended Abstract should be between 1000 and 1200
- Single-space the manuscript
- Keep 1-inch margins all round
- Place page number at the bottom center
- Do not use section or page breaks in the running text
- Use footnotes wherever necessary, but never to solely cite a reference

Equations

The author is responsible for ensuring that equations are presented properly. Use the Microsoft equation function, and not the Word equation function, when typing equations.

Tables

All tables and figures should be professionally typeset following APA guidelines.

- Use Word table generator; do not apply styles, shading, or underlining.
- Single-space all rows; do not allow lead or following spaces in the paragraph option.
- Use superscript a, b, c, and so forth sparingly for table notes.

Table 1
Numbers of Children With and Without Proof of Parental Citizenship

Grade	Girls		Boys
	With	Without	With	Without

5	221	216	239	213
Total	636	599	685 [*]	622

Table notes:
Note. This table demonstrates the elements of a prototypical table. A general note to a table appears first and contains information needed to understand the table, including definitions of abbreviations (see Sections 7.14–7.15) and the copyright attribution for a reprinted or adapted table (see Section 7.7).
^a A specific note appears in a separate paragraph below the general note.
^b Subsequent specific notes follow in the same paragraph (see Section 7.14).
^{*} A probability note (for p values) appears as a separate paragraph below any specific notes; subsequent probability notes follow in the same paragraph (see Section 7.14).
