Wednesday Public Holiday and Resource Conservation

In accordance with the Government's directive to address the current fuel crisis, the Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka will observe Wednesdays as a public holiday effective from 18.03.2026 until further notice. Accordingly, all events and programs are canceled until further notice.

Given the prevailing global and local energy challenges, all students are urged to exercise maximum responsibility in the effective use of electricity and water at lecture halls and hostels.

Your proactive cooperation in conserving these vital resources is essential to sustain our institutional operations during this period.
